School of Public Policy (SPP) General FAQs

1. How much does my program cost?
Up-to-date tuition costs on a semester basis can be found at the following link, including for in-state students, out-of-state students, and international students:
https://bursar.gatech.edu/Tuition-Fees

2. When do classes start?
For every semester you can find all important dates regarding when classes start, when you can sign up for classes, and other important dates with the link below:
https://registrar.gatech.edu/calendar

3. Where can I find the old class schedule?
Schedule of classes can be found here:
https://oscar.gatech.edu/pls/bprod/bwckschd.p_disp_dyn_sched

4. What are the English requirements?
English Proficiency requirements: https://grad.gatech.edu/english-proficiency

5. Are application fee waivers available?
To be considered for an application fee waiver, please send an email to the Director of Graduate Studies, at alice.favero@gatech.edu with your resume attached and the name of the program you would like to apply to.

6. Do international students need any credential or certificate evaluation from any National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES) when applying to the program?
If your transcripts are not in English, you will need to provide a certified English translation. NACES is accepted.

7. If you are in the Army and need a DA Form 2125 signed:
Please contact the Academic Program Manager, Ronny Anderson, at randerson326@gatech.edu

8. How many students are likely to be in each class?
It really depends on the class. For example, PUBP 6000s-8000s will range between 10 and 30 students.

9. If the student can finish the BS in summer, can they enroll in a Georgia Tech graduate program in Fall?
Yes, if your degree is conferred before the start of the Fall semester.

10. Is it possible to audit a class, without being accepted to any program, so that I can better decide if I want to enroll?
Unfortunately, at this time, the student needs to be enrolled in a program to audit a course. Please see here for more information: https://catalog.gatech.edu/policies/grading-gpa/auditing/.
